

Assembling the Components of the Soul 6.08J

Jeanette's Version

In the name Brahman, in the name I AM THAT I AM Sanat Kumara, I call to Helios and Vesta, the Lords of Life and Individuality, the Goddess of Wisdom, Jesus, Mother Mary, Kuthumi, beloved Lanello and Guru Ma for mastery of the seat-of-the-soul chakra, the point in the planes of matter whereby the light of the heart must descend to infuse identity with individuality. I therefore, withdraw the loyalties of my soul from the human consciousness, ego, carnal mind and the flesh, and I give them to God, my Mighty I AM Presence. Beloved Masters, give me the power, the will, and the determination to cleanse my temple to make room for the delicate faculties of the soul and its intuitive powers.

I call for the Masters, Archangel Michael and the immense power of the Holy Spirit to inspect my soul and trace any cords for missing soul parts. Retrieve all fragments, atoms, cells and electrons of my soul and return them to me for cleansing, healing, and integration. Rescue those parts of my soul that are prisoners of the human ego, the dweller-on-the-threshold, Satan, demons, other people, departed loved ones, abusers, victims, in the past-stuck in past life traumas, on other planes or dimensions, with another part of life, in dark places or warehouses, free those soul parts holding on to or touching earthbound spirits or demons. Cut my soul free! 6X

Beloved Archangel Michael exorcise any demons, discarnates or fallen ones who have invaded the temple vacated by my soul consciousness. Gently but firmly remove any soul parts of others that are located in my seat-of-the-soul chakra or anywhere in my four lower bodies or energy field and return them to their proper owners.

Prayers to Archangel Michael

Beloved Zadkiel and Holy Amethyst saturate, saturate, saturate my returning soul fragments with the violet flame. Cleanse, heal, and fill them with Light. Remove anything evil, negative, or neutral including all entities, energies, thoughts, memories, attitudes, energy absorbers, and devices.

Violet Flame

Restore the forcefield and integrity of my soul chakra. I call for the healing of any splits caused by very intense fears of the past—traumatic experiences—where the soul has been driven, into the subconscious. I call back my soul to the throne room...back to the three-in-one, back to the place where the trinity of the threefold flame is enshrined in the temple of the heart. In the name of the Christ, I command the cleansed and healed fragments, atoms, cells and electrons of my soul to return to the soul chakra under the canopy of the Christ. Beloved Holy Spirit and Angels of Healing assemble the components of my soul in their perfect place seal them in place with liquid golden light and align its components with the cube of the heart. Let me experience wholeness by magnetizing solar fire, solar evolution, and solar consciousness.
